

Notwithstanding the existence of the sewer line running through the property, the City has no valid property interest in the subject property.